■ Hen House - Lafayette

Located east of Oakland and within 30 minutes of downtown San Francisco, Lafayette, Moraga and Orinda are situated in southwest Contra Costa County, California.

The combined cities of Lafayette, Moraga and Orinda are family oriented comunities which offer its 57,000 residents a serene setting in contrast to the more urban existence of the surrounding area. The tree-studded hillsides of the area contribute to the overall asthetic beauty. Natural beauty, excellent schools, safety, history, culture, serenity and the proximity to major San Francisco Bay locations and activities make Lafayette, Moraga and Orinda a desired place in which to live.

The 1999 edition of McCormack's Guide to Contra Costa & Solano describes Lafayette as a "prestige town that's considered one of the best adddresses in the East Bay. School rankings are very high, low crime, top-notch restaurants, better commute than most, but internal traffic for some is a sore point. Mix of trendy and traditional."

HISTORY

LAMORINDA

LAFAYETTE, MORAGA AND ORINDA

■ Hacienda de las Flores

Lafayette

Standing in the center of town is the statue of the Marquis de La Fayette, French statesman and officer in the American Army during the Revolutionary War. The town leaders originally requested the name of "Centerville" for the town, but it was already taken in California so the name became La Fayette. Later the spelling was changed to Lafayette.

Frontiersman and farmer, Elam Brown settled in the area now known as Happy Valley back in 1848. As the first citizen here, he started what eventually became to be known as Lafayette. Lafayette became a stopping point for travelers, farmers, lumbermen, ranchers and the Pony Express on route from St. Joseph, Missouri to San Francisco.

By 1900 the population of Lafayette had increased to 150 people. With the opening of the first tunnel through the Oakland Hills in 1903 and the railroad service in 1913, Lafayette began to grow. The completion of the Caldecott Tunnel through the Oakland Hills in 1937 with two bores made it possible to go through the tunnel. Lafayette grew from 4,000 people to 10,000 residents. The 1950's and 60's saw most of Lafayette develop.

Moraga

Most of Moraga was built since the building boom of 1960. Moraga got an early start during the Gold Rush Days in California and actually had 200 residents in 1860. Over the years the area was owned by several parties and major development didn't really start until the 1960's.

Moraga is located about 20 miles south east of San Francisco. Moraga incorporated in 1974.

Moraga is 4+ miles from Orinda, Highway 24 and Orinda BART. Commute times to BART vary, but average 10 minutes during the day and 15 to 20+ minutes - during peak traffic hours. There is bus service to Orinda and Lafayette, including Lafayette BART. Moraga is 11 miles east of Oakland and 18 miles southeast of San Francisco.

Orinda

The name Orinda came from Alice Marsh Camron's poetry book. Her husband, William Camron, purchased almost 3,000 acres in the area in 1875 that was eventually sold to the DeLaveaga family. They later developed much of the County Club area intended to be a valley resort of summer homes for the rich. The town site of Orinda was established back in the 1920's. After the Caldecott Tunnel opened in 1937 connecting Alameda County and Contra Costa Counties, the area began developing rapidly. The 1920's saw Orinda as a get-away for the wealthy. The post-war building boom brought more modest, middle class homes. Orinda has a rural character and a high profile aura that started back in the 1920's.

(A permit is required to hike in EBMUD lands; call 287-0469.) The trail makes connections to a variety of schools (including St. Mary's College), regional trails (Briones-to-Las Trampas), local parks (Moraga Commons), and commercial areas in downtown Moraga. One of the first rail-trails in California, this 60-foot-wide recreational trail offers residential access, regional connections, scenic areas, and convenience to local facilities. It is accessible to persons in wheelchairs.

PARKS OF MORAGA

The Moraga Commons Park, Rancho Laguna Park, Hacienda de las Flores, and Climbing Country at Los Perales School, an area of more than 50 active park acres.

MORAGA COMMONS PARK

A Wonderful park with picnic areas, 20 acres, in the middle of the town.

SODA AQUATIC CENTER

In fall of 1999, the Soda Aquatic Center opened on the grounds of Campolindo High School in Moraga. It was a joint project between the Acalanes School District and the Orinda based Soda Charities. The center now serves all district students and community members. The year-round facility has an Olympic-size competition pool, a diving pool and a lap pool. The center includes a community room, dressing rooms, and concession stand.

ORINDA COMMUNITY CENTER PARK

The Community Park is located next to the Orinda Community Center at 26 Orinda Way. The Park is available for use on a first come, first served basis. The Park includes a large open grass area, two playground areas (one featuring a new water play area), picnic and barbecue areas along with three lighted tennis courts. There is an amphitheater at the park which is available for rent for day and evening events. Contact them at 925-254-2445

Orinda is at the crossroads of many National and Regional Trail systems. These include The American Discovery Trail, The deLaveaga Trail, The East Bay Regional Park Trail System, as well as several local walking areas. TRAILS

In 1996, the City of Orinda won a Trail Town USA designation for planning an exemplary trail system that promotes non-motorized transportation. Orinda was cited for the de Laveaga Trail, which begins downtown and connects with regional trails. The East Bay Municipal Utilities (EBMUD) trail at Wagner Ranch connects to the American Discovery Trail. The St. Stephen's pedestrian and bicycle trail begins at Bates Boulevard and Davis Drive, linking with the East Bay Regional Park Trail sys tem, and runs along the east-bound lanes of Highway 24 to St. Stephen's Drive. The trail connects Orinda to the Lafayette Reservoir.

EBMUD TRAILS - San Pablo Dam
The EBMUD owns about 27,000 acres of land and water in the East Bay hills. There are over fifty miles of trails available on EBMUD land. The San Pablo Dam Recreational Area is operated by EBMUD and offers hiking trails, picnic and barbeque facilities, a marina and a playground facility.

With its rolling, grassy hills and secluded, shady canyons, Briones is a secret wilderness surrounded by the towns of central Contra Costa County. Although the park is close to Lafayette, Walnut Creek, Pleasant Hill, Concord, and Martinez, there are peaks within it from which you can see only park and watershed lands for miles in every direction.

Briones' 5,756 acres are home to many animals and birds, which forage on the grasslands or find shelter among the oaks and bays.

■ Orinda Village Shopping

There is a direct correlation between purchases made in Lamorinda and the services the cities are able to provide for their citizens. Nearly 12% of all sales taxes collected in Lamorinda are returned to the City and is a significant part - 33.7% - of the City budget. Street repairs, police services, youth and senior services are a few of the many programs offered.

LAFAYETTE - Mt. Diablo Boulevard Stretching through Lafayette along highway 24 is Mt. Diablo Boulevard and a wide host of shops and restaurants to choose from. Aside from several grocery stores, Mt. Diablo Boulevard has gourmet stores like Trader Joe's and Whole Foods.

MORAGA CENTER AND THE PARK AT RHEEM Moraga doesn't have a downtown street like many larger cities. Instead Moraga has two shopping centers: the Moraga Center and The Park at Rheem that serve the community. Each center has one or more grocery stores and many other smaller shops and restaurants.

MORAGA CENTER is a Spanish style, tiled roof complex. Featuring Moraga Hardware. Perfect for weekend handyman projects.

The Center also has 5 restaurants: an excellent Chinese restaurant, Shangri-la, plus Terzetto Cuisine, Pennini Pasta, and Mucho Wraps.
